

Western Canadian Association of Swine Veterinarians (WCASV)

195 St. David Street South, 3rd Floor, Fergus, ON N1M 2L4 519-787-4322, jennmitchell.tfo@bellnet.ca

The WCASV is accepting applications for the Maxwell Swine DVM Graduate Scholarship. A $5000 scholarship will be awarded to a DVM graduate from the Western College of Veterinary Medicine or the Faculty of Veterinary Medicine at the University of Calgary.

Eligibility

DVM having graduated within the last six months (2025)

AND

Demonstrated engagement in swine veterinary practice

Applicant Information

Name
Street Address
City, Prov, Postal Code
Phone
E-Mail Address

Please check education level and institution

Highest level of education completed:
Current program:
Academic Institution:

Provide the following in an attached file:

- 1. Biography - max 300 words
- 2. Current Swine Interests - Summarize your area of research, special interests, or experiences in swine health and production
- 3. Case presentation- Write a summary of a swine health or production investigation that you were involved with during veterinary school or since graduating. What key learnings did you take from this experience and how will you apply what you learned in the future?
- 4. Professional Vision – Dream big! Tell us what you hope to be working on in 5-10 years' time. What impact do you hope to have on swine health and production in Canada?

Process

All applications must be emailed to jennmitchell.tfo@bellnet.ca by September 26, 2025. Please include Maxwell Award DVM Graduate Scholarship Application in subject line. The WCASV awards committee will notify all applicants of the outcome of the award in October 2025.